-serving science & profession

Terms and conditions

1. The competition is open to all.
2. Entries must depict, either fully or partially, one of the Geological Society's 100 Great Geosites – to view the full list, visit www.geolsoc.org.uk/100geosites
3. Entrants can submit as many photographs as they wish, electronically, in colour or black and white.
4. Images already submitted as part of the 100 geosites project in 2014 are eligible, provided they meet the format requirements.
5. Images submitted to the Joint Regional Groups Photography Competition, 'Geologica Britannica', are eligible, provided they meet the format requirements. (Further information at www.geolsoc.org.uk/jointphotocomp)
6. Each entry should be marked with name, address and which geosite is pictured.
7. Entries should be emailed to 100geosites@geolsoc.org.uk, subject heading 'Photo Competition.'
8. Images must be landscape format, with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi, and large enough to be featured in a print calendar (minimum dimensions: 216mm x 154 mm)
9. The competition closes at midnight on Monday 21st September 2015.
10. 12 winners will be chosen, to feature in our 100 Great Geosites 2016 calendar. 3 of the 12 will also be awarded first, second and third prizes of £100, £50 and £25.
11. All entries must be the original work of the entrant and must not infringe the rights of any other party. The entrants must be the sole owner of copyright in all photographs entered and must have obtained permission of any people featured in the entries or their parents/guardians if children under 16 are featured. Entrants must not have breached any laws when taking their photographs.
12. Entrants will retain copyright in the photographs that they submit. By entering the competition all entrants grant to the Geological Society the right to publish and sell their photographs, with full credit given, in the 2016 100 Great Geosites calendar. Entrants also grant the Geological Society to publish and exhibit images on the Geological Society's website, social media channels and Geoscientist magazine.

13. The Geological Society reserves the right to crop/resize images, only if necessary for inclusion in the 2016 100 Geosites Calendar.
